Historical informations.....
The building itself is a historical building, beautiful sights and clean. But the only issue is the place is not covered by sufficient aircond. During an event, we have to use few fan's and air cooler. Even our guests stated to sweat and started to surround the aircond. Other than that the place is a wonderful historical and educational building

Found the hotel thru lots of browsing during my free time, and here's The Lalu (the name which might be a stranger to locals here since they go by a different Chinese name).
